

I am against allowing cell phone use in airplanes. The close proximity of seats and confined space would make cell phone talking annoying to other captive passengers.